1 In the present, Bombay non-official annual convention No 6767 dated 19th May 1922 states that the annual conference may be postponed to the next general election of the Bombay Council but the postponement is undesirable as it involves a departure from the policy laid down in the Morley-Minto Reforms and a resolution under the first proviso to section 72 of the Act to further amend the same Rules appears to be the better course

SIR,

I have the honor to state that at the time of the formation of the Malleswaram Extension, some bungalow sites were laid out at the Northern portion of the extension and granted to several persons. Some of these bungalow sites have not yet been built upon. As no proper agreement was taken from the purchasers of these sites as to the time within which buildings have to be constructed thereon, stringent measures such as resumption of sites etc , could not be resorted to, in the absence of special legislation.

Mr.S.S.Sotlur owns 6 bungalow sites in the northern most part of this extension He has now applied to this office to divide them into smaller sites with necessary roads and conservancy lanes In this extension there is a great demand for small house sites as almost all such sites have already been built upon and I am confident that if the permission is granted , these small sites will also be built upon very early. As this extension was laid out by Governmen

Conditions of Sale

1) The auction purchaser should, as soon as the sale of the site is concluded, be required to deposit 25 p c of the purchase money of the site, failing which the site will be re-sold at his risk.

2) The remaining 75 p c of the purchase money should be paid within 15 days from the date of the sale and a receipt obtained. Otherwise, the deposit will be forfeited and the site re-sold and the original purchaser made liable for loss if any.

3) The auction purchaser should take possession of the site as soon as the sale is sanctioned.

4) Construction work should be commenced within 30 days from the grant of the site and the building completed within 6 months.

5) A length of not less than 50 ft should be left as open space in front and neither permanent nor temporary structures should be erected thereon.

6) Building work should not be commenced until the plan is approved by the Sanitary Engineer. All buildings should be either tiled or terraced.

7) The level of the ground and back-yard as well as the arrangements for drainage and daily conservancy should be in accordance with the instructions of the Sanitary Engineer

8) When a particular street is reserved for the occupation of members of a particular sect, religion or community, no member of a different sect, religion or community should be allowed to reside in a house in such street except with the written consent of all the residents of the street and the sanction of the Dy Commr.

9) No pits should be dug in Sites allotted for building purposes If loose earth is wanted for levelling purposes, the same should be obtained from a place to be allotted by the Sanitary Engineer

10) Transgression of any of the above conditions will render the owner of the site being summarily deprived of his right to the site

11) When a site is forfeited for a transgression of the above conditions neither the owner nor his assignee will be entitled to any compensation.

Dear Mr. Brahmanan

I am the very last order in Mallikarjunan and also the Vice Station.
They are Nos 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67.
As I am not literary & I want to settle my affairs. So, I wanted to divide the big ones into smaller ones & allot to next immediate heirs and divide the rest among my sons & others.
I, therefore, made a sketch dividing 64-67 to abt 3 shares only and for [illegible] the Municipality, Bank & Insurance offices may please do the same & pass mutation entries in their offices and pay to me. I am the person to be [illegible] to sometimes Mr. Ratnam for [illegible] Sirs, and the [illegible] Sirs from the matter before the Commissioner. On the reverse of the map given to me as my title-deed No 4 of 1253 A dated 12-4-1900 is printed. It begins thus the following conditions are laid down in connection with the grant of sites for building purposes in the B of the estimate and ends with my declaration that I agree to all these conditions.

As it is I can't necessarily available on the Scotland I do not give it in entirety here.

If you will please read the map the conditions, you will see that there is nothing in it to justify the immediately preceding remarks.

No 3. is the only condition that entirely my liberty to deal with the space I have bought No 4. is for sanitary purposes. As long as I do not pursue anything immoral, that cannot control - since me there is none other which could be used to object to any proposal

Therefore during 99 clause 4 is the only way out for the municipality. But the condition would be evaded in a minute by a lawful law.
